Update

Additional correspondence received from an adjacent resident, mentioning that the application site has been a Stonemason and builder's merchant for the last 150 years as opposed to 40 years as stated in the 'Site' section describing the application site (page 23 of the committee reports pack).

The applicant has secured access to strategic SANG at Naishes Lane in Church Crookham. The Council's legal services team has now agreed a final draft for the unilateral agreement, which will be issued to the applicant for signatures, to seal the agreement.
